

Copyright, 1922, Sun-Herald Corporation.

The offensive that failed—Chapin of Harvard gaining five yards off tackle in the game against Princeton, which the Tigers won, 10-3, their first victory on the Stadium Field.

Fotograms.

President Harding, accompanied by Secretary Weeks and Secretary Denby, laying a wreath on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington as a tribute to the nation's dead on Armistice Day.

International.

The Kaiser's bride, Princess Hermine of Reuss, in her simple wedding gown, with her daughter, Henrietta, and her oldest son, Hans, photographed at Doorn just before the marriage ceremony.

International.

Underwood & Underwood.

Above: Prominent visitors at the National Horse Show—Mrs. Paul Arbon, Mrs. Frederick Herreshoff and Mrs. Frank C. Henderson, snapped in their box at Squadron A Armory.

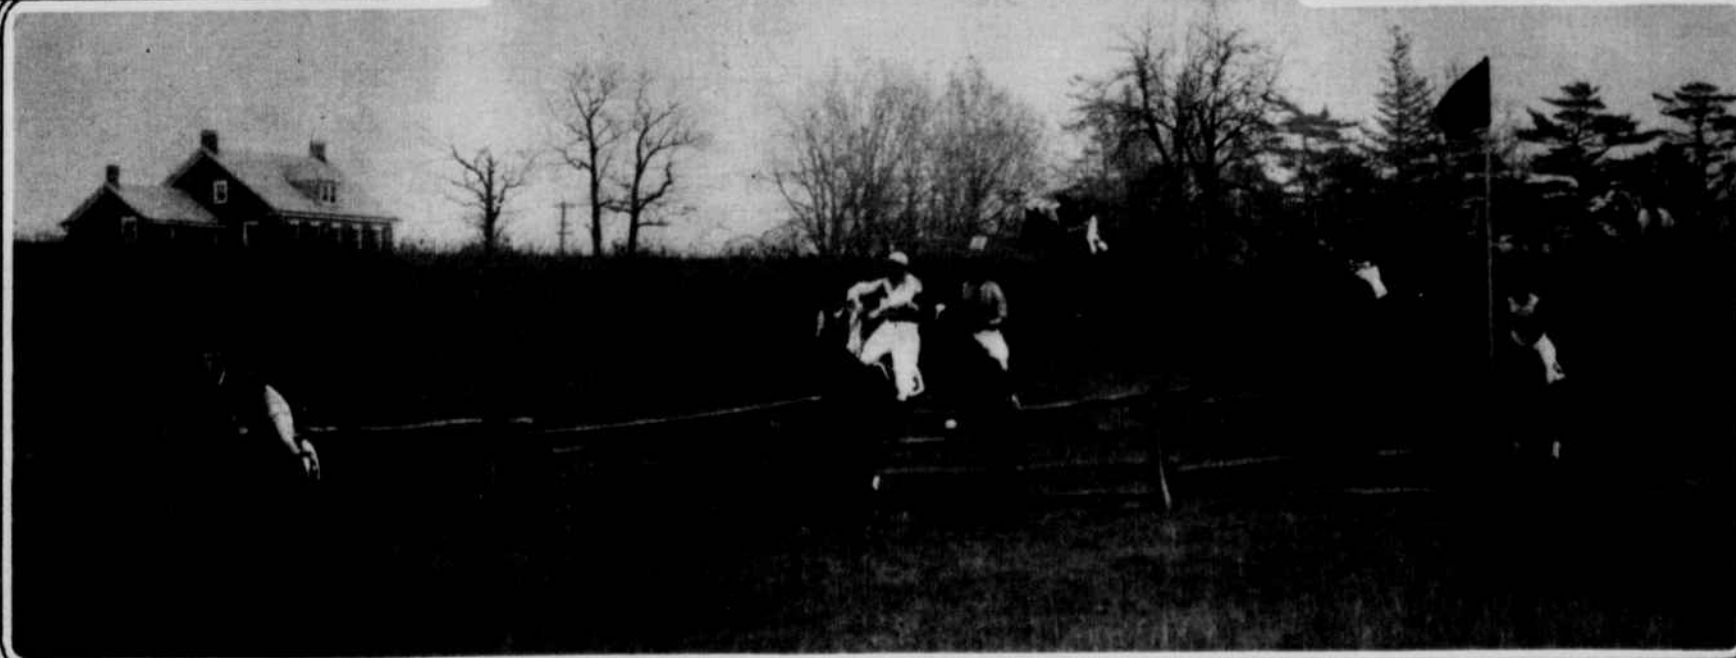

At right: The outer corona of the total solar eclipse of 1922, photographed at Goondiwindi, Australia.

International.

Society girls as waitresses in the tea room at the National Horse Show—Left to right, Misses Cecile Sisco, Sally Peters and Delores Carrillo.

International.

Competitors in the race for the Meadowbrook cup at Jericho in a stirring finish. On the left is Hard Banking, the winner, leading the field over the last jump.

Levick.